Strange But True

by Samantha Weaver

- It was French playwright and actor Louis Verneuil who made the following sage observation: "The prime purpose of eloquence is to keep other people from talking."
- If you're like most Americans, you've stolen from your employer — but probably not much. It seems that 58% of your fellow citizens admit to taking office supplies for personal use.

Outdoor Opportunities

By COL (Ret.) Grey D. Berrier II

A Heartfelt Salute to a Fellow Avid Outdoorsman and Truly Great American!

Have you ever taken a long-distance hike? One that lasts weeks, traversing hundreds of miles, crossing all sorts of terrain in all kinds of weather. Hikers on the famous Appalachian Trail and other long-distance foot paths will tell you they meet a variety of interesting people along their journey who they have the opportunity to walk alongside of for a period, share meals with, and swap stories with; all while they each shouldered their individual loads on their own journeys.

Thinking about it, that is a tremendous analogy for our lives in general and the individual journeys we're each walking day-by-day. None of us walk the exact same path through life, but we are blessed to have fellow travelers walk alongside us for a period. In the military, where I spent most of my adult life, those fellow travelers became "a band of brothers (and sisters)" who you shared common experiences, common hardships, and common challenges with; knowing you had each other's backs when times got tough, sometimes in short order. I've learned that same "band of brothers (and sisters)" mentality pervades the first responder community; so those in law enforcement, the fire service, and emergency medical services, know exactly what I'm talking about and the importance of having each other's backs through tough times.

Maybe that's why I became such good friends with Daniel Joseph Egnacheski, Jr., or as many knew him, "Big Dan". Dan retired from the Fire Department at the 910th Airlift Wing at the Youngstown Air Reserve Station in nearby Vienna, OH in 2013, after completing 26-years as a Department of the Air Force civilian employee and ascending to the esteemed rank of Captain. He was highly respected in the fire department and across the air station for his technical expertise, work ethic, and willingness to train others. I first met Dan in Feb. 2014 when, as recent retirees, both sharing a passion for the outdoors, we accepted part-time positions as Pro Staff Members for Fin Feather Fur Outfitters that was coming to Boardman, OH. Many Weekly Bargain Bulletin readers probably crossed paths with "Big Dan" Egnacheski at The Fin, since he was the store's reloading expert and very capably assisted customers at the firearms counter.

I quickly learned that Dan and I shared an equally vibrant love of God, Family, and Country that permeated all aspects of life. He treasured his roles as a husband, father, grandfather, co-worker, friend, and brother in Christ; and he quickly earned my admiration, trust, and respect. I found that Dan and I shared many common interests: hunting, fishing, gardening, and cooking; and the fact that he grew up in Pittsburgh's North Hills and I had worked in Pittsburgh for several years, gave us so much in common to talk about. Like my maternal grandfather, Dan was one of those guys who I wish I had one-tenth of the technical knowledge they do, since he worked as a contractor on the side and performed home inspections. He was a capable carpenter, plumber, electrician, mechanic, and just about anything else. Within the past year, Dan helped me out on a bathroom renovation and I was able to assist him on his son's home improvement. I'll always treasure having the opportunity to fish with Dan multiple times on Pymatuning Reservoir and hearing his many stories, like hunting deer, turkey, and coyotes near his home in Lowellville, OH; his emergency response to the May 31, 1985 tornado outbreak across NE OH and NW PA; and his experiences on the 910th Hazmat Team across Trumbull County.

"Big Dan" started his life journey on February 28, 1957 and completed it on August 5, 2019 at age 62. If you want to know who Dan was, just listen to Tracy Lawrence's 2007 country hit, "Find Out Who Your Friends Are". That song could have been written about "Big Dan" because he was always the guy who showed up with a "big old heart" for a lot of people. I consider it a privilege that I could walk along life's path for a few years in Dan Egnacheski's presence and I know a lot of other people feel the same way! God Bless, Be Safe, and Great Outdoors! ©WBB 2019

by JoAnn Derson

• Fridge out? Try this hurricane hack: Put the contents in your washing machine, packed with ice. As the ice melts, the water drains away rather than drowning the contents. You can add more ice or just keep it closed and covered to get away with a day or two if you insulate well. ©King Features

Christ Commands His followers to BE 'DISCIPLES' and to go and MAKE 'DISCIPLES'

A disciple of Jesus Christ is 100% committed to Him as Lord of all areas of his life. He has dedicated his life to studying the Word of God so that he may know it, love it, live it, and then teach it to others, leading them to be Christ's disciples also.

We are totally committed to obeying this command.

2 quarts vegetable oil for frying
1 large egg
1 cup milk
2 teaspoons vegetable oil
1 cup pancake mix
18 oz. package cream-filled chocolate sandwich cookies (such as Oreo®)

Deep Fried Oreos®

• Heat oil in deep-fryer to 375°. Whisk together the egg, milk, and 2 teaspoons of vegetable oil in a bowl until smooth. Stir in the pancake mix until no dry lumps remain. Dip the cookies into the batter one at a time, and carefully place into the hot frying oil. Fry only 4 or 5 at a time to avoid overcrowding the deep fryer. Cook until the cookies are golden-brown, about 2 minutes. Drain on a paper towel-lined plate before serving. www.allrecipes.com

1 quart vanilla ice cream
3 cups crushed cornflakes cereal
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
3 egg whites

Fried Ice Cream

2 quarts oil for frying
• Scoop ice cream into 8 - 1/2 cup sized balls. Place on baking sheet and freeze until firm, about 1 hour. In shallow dish, combine cornflakes and cinnamon. In another dish, beat egg whites until foamy. Roll ice cream balls in egg whites, then in cornflakes, covering ice cream completely. Repeat if necessary. Freeze again until firm, 3 hours. In deep fryer or large, heavy saucepan, heat oil to 375°. Using a basket or slotted spoon, fry ice cream balls 1 or 2 at a time, 10 to 15 seconds, until golden. Drain quickly on paper towels, serve immediately. www.allrecipes.com

• If you have a small bedroom with room for only a little bedside table, try hanging a lamp over it or using a wall-mounted lamp. It will free up space on your nightstand.

HOT SANDWICHES • GIANT SUBS

• There seems to be quite a rivalry between the towns of Rosehill, North Carolina, and Wilmington, Delaware. Both claim to be the home of the world's largest frying pan, with a diameter of 10 feet. This begs some questions: How many eggs are being fried at once to require such a large piece of cookware? And what sort of stove is required to heat such a pan?
