Our Daily Bread

The Light of Christ

When they saw the star,
they were overjoyed.
Matthew 2:10. READ
Matthew 2:1-2, 9-12

My husband and I have always enjoyed attending the Christmas Eve service at our church.
In the early years of our marriage, we had a special tradition of bundling up in warm clothing after the service to hike up a nearby hill where 350 glowing lights were strung from tall poles in the shape of a star. There—often in the snow—we'd whisper our reflections on Jesus' miraculous birth while we gazed out over the city. Meanwhile, many people in the town were looking up at the bright, string-light star from the valley below.

That star is a reminder of the birth of our Savior.
The Bible tells of magi "from the east" who arrived in Jerusalem seeking "the one who [had] been born king of the Jews" (Matthew 2:1-2). They'd been watching the skies and had seen the star "when it rose" (v. 2).
Their journey took them onward from Jerusalem to Bethlehem, the star going "ahead of them until it stopped over the place where the child was" (v. 9).
There, they "bowed down and worshiped him" (v. 11).

Christ is the source of light in our lives both figuratively (as the one who guides us) and literally as the one who created the sun, moon, and stars in the sky (Colossians 1:15-16). Like the magi who "were overjoyed" when they saw His star (Matthew 2:10), our greatest delight is in knowing Him as the Savior who came down from the heavens to dwell among us. "We have seen his glory" (John 1:14) By Kirsten Holmberg

REFLECT: How has Jesus brought light to your life? With whom might you share that today?

My Christmas Wish For You

To all my patients and their families...

I want to thank you for your trust in me, for making me laugh sometimes and even cry sometimes, for sharing your life's stories, for making me feel happy that I have a job that is so rewarding in so many ways, for all your hugs and kisses, and of course, for your business. My prosperity comes from you, and I thank you with all my heart. I wish that your Christmas is Merry and that the New Year will bring you Faith, Hope, Happiness, and Good Health. I hope that my patients that have gone to Heaven will be sharing Christ's Birthday with Him and that they will tell Him that I hope that someday I, too, will be entitled to share such a glorified Holiday. May God bless you and yours and have a wonderful, Merry Christmas.

With Love, Donna

NEW MACARONI AND CHEESE CASSEROLE

- 16 oz. pkg. rigatoni or ziti macaroni
- 2 Tbsp. salad oil
- 1 sm. onion, chopped
- 1/3 C. all-purpose flour
- 1 qt. milk
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 1/8 tsp. white pepper
- 1/2 lb. Fontina or mozzarella cheese, shredded
- 10 oz. pkg. frozen peas
- 1/2 lb. cooked ham, diced

Preheat oven to 350°. In saucepot, prepare rigatoni as label directs. Drain rigatoni, return to saucepot. Meanwhile, in 2-qt. saucepan over medium heat, in hot salad oil, cook onion until tender but not browned. Stir in flour; cook 1 minute. With wire whisk or fork, gradually stir in milk, salt and pepper until smooth; over high heat, heat to boiling, stirring constantly. Remove saucepan from heat; stir in half of cheese. Into rigatoni, stir cheese sauce, frozen peas and diced ham. Spoon rigatoni mixture into shallow 3-qt. casserole or 13"x9" glass baking dish. Top with remaining cheese. Bake rigatoni 25-30 minutes until mixture is hot and bubbly and cheese melts and browns slightly.

By COL (Ret.) Grey D. Berrier II

Which Road Will You Travel This Christmas Season?

It is amazing how a song can immediately take you on a trip down memory lane. I've recently had two songs on the radio immediately "take me back" to another place and time. With some radio stations making the conversion to full-time Christmas music well over a month before December 25, there was a good chance I was going to hear either Perry Como's 1951 classic, "It's Beginning to Look a Lot Like Christmas," or Johnny Mathis' 1958 seasonal hit, "The Christmas Song." When I hear either of those two songs, I'm swept back to the early 1970's, riding in the backseat of our family station wagon with my sister and brother, as my dad made the 2-hour drive from our home to my maternal grandparents after we opened our Christmas gifts. My mom always put Christmas music on the car radio to pass the time as we eagerly anticipated arriving at Grandma and Pop-Pop's for a delicious meal and a treasured gift exchange.

Hard to believe those special family Christmas treks were over 50-years ago. To this day, I still really enjoy going for rides around Christmas time, especially when the ground is covered in snow. If you're traveling on an interstate or the PA Turnpike, the snow just seems to make the entire landscape stretched out before your eyes seem more picturesque and vivid. Regardless of whether you are passing forested ridges and mountains or broad valleys with expanses of farmland, your mind often thinks, "this view I'm seeing would make a tremendous photo, painting, or Christmas card." If you are traveling on a city street, through neighborhoods, or on a meandering state route, the special treat this time of year comes at night when you see the assorted Christmas lights on display. Some folks really go "all out," when it comes to making their properties eye-catching spectacles with lights, inflatables, projectors, and sometimes music.

If you are traveling on a two-lane country road, a white background of snow permits your eyes to eagerly search the woodlots and stretches of forest you pass through. Occasionally, you might catch a deer standing amongst the trees or bedded by a blowdown, or possibly some other bird or mammal exhibiting interesting behavior in their snow-covered habitat. A snow-covered landscape is also a very good way to find preferred road crossings of deer and even coyotes as their tracks definitely give their habits away and leave evidence for an attentive observer to find. There is another type of road found in more rural parts of Pennsylvania that you may or may not have traveled. They are frequently found on PA

State Game Lands, PA State Forests, and traversing parts of the Allegheny National Forest. They are dirt roads with prominent signage that warns, "No Winter Maintenance," and possibly even includes: "Travel At Your Own Risk." If you have a 4-wheel drive vehicle and the right tools in case you do get stuck (snow shovel, tow strap, farm jack, traction mats, etc.), you might take that warning as a challenge.

When I hear the phrase, "Travel At your Own Risk," it makes me think of every one of our individual lives. Life is full of uncertainties and none of us are guaranteed tomorrow. Whether you realize it or not, that is why Jesus Christ came to Earth that very first Christmas. He came to offer every one of us a path of salvation that is the back story to the Christmas season and requires each of us to make a vital decision for ourselves. I've heard it called the "Romans Road" because it shares the Gospel through a series of poignant verses from the Book of Romans. (1) All have sinned (Romans 3:23) – "for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." (2) The Consequences of Sin (Romans 6:23A) – "For the wages of sin is death..." (3) God's Solution: Jesus (Romans 5:8) – "But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us." (4) Receiving Salvation (Romans 10:9) – "If you declare with your mouth, 'Jesus is Lord,' and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved." (5) The Gift of Eternal Life (Romans 6:23B) – "...but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord." (6) Peace with God (Romans 5:1) – "Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." This year, I encourage you to attend the Church of your choice and hear the Christmas message for yourself with an open mind, heart, and spirit. Jesus is the reason for the season! He came so that you might have a personal relationship and eternal life.

Between Christmas and New Year's, there won't be a Weekly Bargain Bulletin paper copy published for December 26. However, there will be a digital edition published online at: weeklybargainbulletin.com. For the first time ever, this digital WBB will contain my next "Outdoor Opportunities." Please take a few minutes of your holiday season to go online and check it out!

God Bless, Be Safe, and Great Outdoors!

1 1/2 C. uncooked long grain rice
1/2 C. butter, no substitutes
1 1/2 C. grated Parmesan cheese
1 Tbsp. minced fresh parsley

In large saucepan, bring water to boil; stir in rice. Reduce heat to low; cover and cook for 20 minutes or until tender. Meanwhile, in skillet over medium heat, melt butter until browned. Place rice in serving dish and sprinkle with Parmesan cheese. Pour butter over rice; cover and let stand 2-3 minutes. Sprinkle with parsley.

CARROT CAKE WITH HOT GLAZE

2 C. sugar
1 1/2 C. salad oil
2 C. carrots, grated
2 C. self-rising flour
2 C. pecan pieces
4 eggs
1 tsp. cinnamon
Dash of salt
Hot Glaze:
1 C. sugar
Juice of one orange

Cream 2 cups sugar and oil. Add eggs one at a time. Add carrots, flour and salt and stir. Stir in nuts and bake in 8" tube pan for 1 hour and 15 minutes at 350°. Hot Glaze: heat orange juice and 1 cup sugar. Bring to a full boil. Turn baked cake upside down on serving plate. Slowly spoon filling over top and sides of cake. Repeat until all glaze has soaked in cake.

SWEET POTATO FRIES

2 Tbsp. thawed orange juice concentrate 1 tsp. onion powder
1/2 tsp. table salt
1/8 tsp. cayenne pepper
1 lb. sweet potatoes, peeled and cut into 1/2" sticks

Preheat oven to 375°. Spray large baking pan with butter-flavored cooking spray. In large bowl, combine orange juice concentrate, onion powder, salt and cayenne pepper. Add potato sticks. Mix well to coat. Arrange coated potato sticks on prepared baking pan. Bake for 10 minutes; turn carefully and continue baking for 10 minutes more or until tender.

Merry Christmas!

CHEESECAKE TRUFFLES

10 oz. full-fat soft cheese, like cream cheese or mascarpone 2 oz. icing sugar
6 oz. biscuit/cookie crumbs, crushed fine

Decoration

7 oz. milk chocolate, melted
2 oz. biscuit/cookie crumbs, crushed fine
Add soft cheese to a bowl and mix briefly until smooth before adding icing sugar and briefly mixing again until combined. Pour crushed biscuit crumbs into the mix and fold together until combined. Refrigerate mixture for at least 2 hours. Take chilled mixture out of the fridge and scoop into truffle shapes using 2 teaspoons or a melon baller, then place onto a tray lined with parchment paper. Return the truffles to the fridge for another hour, or the freezer for 30 minutes.

Decorate the truffles: carefully dip each into melted chocolate and place back onto lined tray. (Use small spoons or forks to help with this.) Once dipped, sprinkle tops with the extra crushed biscuits.

BEEF FAJITAS
 1 Tbsp. olive oil
 4 cloves garlic, minced
 2 Tbsp. lime juice
 1 tsp. grated lime zest
 1 tsp. ground cumin
 1 lb. lean round tip sirloin, trimmed of all visible fat
 1/4 tsp. salt
 2 bell peppers, green or red, seeded and cut into 1/4"-wide strips 1 onion, cut into 1/4"
 wide slices
 4 whole wheat tortillas
 (8" diameter)
 1/2 C. medium-hot salsa 1/4 C. fat-free sour cream

In resealable plastic bag, combine the oil, garlic, lime juice, lime zest, and cumin. Add the sirloin and toss well to coat. Refrigerate for 4 hours or overnight. Preheat the grill or broiler. Remove the sirloin from the marinade, reserving any left-over marinade, and sprinkle with the salt. Grill or broil 4" from the heat for 5-6 minutes per side, or until an instant-read thermometer inserted into the center registers 145° for medium-rare. Transfer to a cutting board and cover loosely with foil. Heat nonstick skillet over medium-high heat. Add bell peppers, onion, and reserved marinade. Cook, stirring often, for 8-9 minutes, or until the vegetables are softened. Warm tortillas according to package directions. Thinly slice sirloin across the grain on a slight angle. To assemble a fajita, place 1 tortilla on a plate and top with 1/4 sirloin, 1/4 vegetable mixture, 2 Tbsp. salsa, and 1 Tbsp. sour cream. Repeat with the remaining ingredients.

Strange But True by Lucie Winborne

- Professional chefs in wealthy 17th-century European households were primarily men, who often cooked in their underwear due to kitchens' intense heat.
- Deaf quarterback Paul Hubbard was the first to use the "round formation huddle" in football, to ensure that his teammates could interpret his hand gestures.

CHOCOLATE PUDDING & MIXED BERRY TRIFLE

- 1 1/2 C. sugar
- 1 1/3 C. all-purpose flour
- 2/3 C. unsweetened cocoa powder
- 1 tsp. baking soda
- 1/2 tsp. baking powder
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 3/4 C. strong brewed coffee
- 3/4 C. buttermilk
- 6 Tbsp. vegetable oil
- 2 large eggs
- 1 tsp. vanilla extract
- 2 Tbsp. sugar
- 2 Tbsp. cornstarch
- 2 Tbsp. unsweetened cocoa powder
- 1/8 tsp. salt
- 1 1/2 C. whole milk
- 1/2 C. heavy cream
- 2/3 C. milk chocolate, chopped
- 1 tsp. vanilla extract
- 6 C. fresh raspberries
- 6 C. fresh blueberries
- Milk chocolate, shavings for garnish

In large bowl, sift together first 6 ingredients. Add coffee, buttermilk, eggs, oil, and vanilla, mix until just combined. Transfer batter to parchment-lined baking pan. Bake at 325°F for 25-30 minutes, until a toothpick inserted into cake comes out clean. Cool and then cut the cake into 2" pieces.

Chocolate pudding: Whisk together sugar, cornstarch, cocoa powder, and salt in large saucepan. Gradually whisk in milk and cream. Bring to boil over moderate heat, whisking constantly. Boil until mixture thickens, about 2 minutes, will get thick very quickly. Remove from heat and whisk in chocolate and vanilla quickly. Continue whisking until smooth. Transfer to a bowl and chill, placing piece of plastic wrap directly on pudding to prevent a skin from forming. Chill until cold, at least 2 hours.

Assemble the trifle: Use eight small serving cups (approx. 8 oz.). Place cake pieces, a bit of raspberries and blueberries at bottom of each serving cup. Spoon chocolate pudding on top, spreading it into any spaces in cake layer and smoothing top so it is as flat as possible. Continue with second layer of cake pieces, berries and pudding. For third top layer, sprinkle only pieces of cake and berries and garnish with shaved milk chocolate.
